VERDUGO SEEKS SEWER SYSTEM

PETITION IS FILED ASKING BOARD OF TRUSTEES TO FORM BOND DISTRICT

PLAN IS OUTLINED

SECTION TO VOTE $40,000 FOR TRUNK LINE; CITY TO BUILD DISPOSAL WORKS

Formation of a municipal improvement district for the purpose of voting bonds to cover the cost of installing a sewage disposal system in Verdugo Woodlands was proposed before the board of trustees last night through a petition filed by the Verdugo Woodlands Association.

The petition was filed by Charles L. Chandler and F. P. Newport, representng the association, and both spoke briefly in support of the project.

Trustee Dwight Stephenson, chairman of the board, stated in answer to the petitioners that the trustees had partially considered the desired improvement in committee of the whole and all seemed favorable. At his suggestion the matter was referred to the committee of the whole for consideration.

The plan as presented provides the city of Glendale shall construct and maintain the sewage disposal works. The petitioners in Verdugo Woodlands propose to bond themselves for about $40,000 for the sewage trunk line.

Brief Talks Are Made

In presenting the petition and also a resolution passed by the Verdugo association, Mr. Chandler said that the request had been signed by eighty-eight voters in the district and that, apparently, practically everyone was in favor of the improvement under the plan which had been outlined as the result of conferences with T. W. Watson, city manager.

Mr. Newport declared that the people of the district were in accord on the project. He urged that the board take favorable action as quickly as possible.

Chairman Stephenson said the members of the board, from what discussion there had been in the committee of the whole, seemed to be in favor of the plan as outlined.

City Manager Watson submitted a report and recommendation to the board on the matter, as follows:

"We attended a meeting of the Verdugo Woodlands association held in the old Verdugo Adobe Friday evening, January 14, to discuss further with the residents and property holders of the Verdugo canyon district the matter of sewage disposal.

READING CIRCLE

MUTUAL BENEFIT ASSOCIATION HAS SESSION; PROGRAM OF DISTRICT GATHERING

The Mutual Benefit Reading circle held its regular meeting in the public library on Harvard street Wednesday. On account of the inclement weather the attendance was not as large as usual, but nevertheless enthusiasm was not lacking. The review given by Mrs. H. V. Henry was of an article taken from the November issue of a magazine. It was, "We, the Unimportant People." by Margaret Deland. This article was a plea for housewives to eliminate the unnecessary work so as to leave themselves free for something more important.

Program Is Announced

The following program was announced for the first district meeting in Pasadena next week.

The meeting will open with the president's council, led by Mrs. P. S. McNutt of Glendale, which will be followed by Dr. Victor E. Stork of Los Angeles, well-known child specialist, who will speak on "The Nutrition of the Growing Child." The Pasadena Federation will act as hostesses at the noon luncheon. In the afternoon, V. E. DeGroot, executive for the Los Angeles Boy Scouts, will speak on "Recreation for the Adolescent Child." Miss Madeline Veverka, head of primary education in Los Angeles, will have as her subject "Moral Education in the Home."

Following luncheon at noon, the Glendale circle continued the reading of the book, "The Essentials of Character," by E. O. Sisson. The chapter on "Habit" was taken up for discussion.

Total Of 145 Streets, Avenues, Roads, Drives And Courts In Glendale

There are 145 streets, avenues, drives, roads, ways and courts in Glendale and Casa Verdugo.

Forty of these extend on both sides of the base lines, Brand boulevard and Broadway, making 185 actual divisions appearing in the street directory section of the new city directory. Only two of these, Madison Court, extending east from Glendale avenue south of Cypress avenue, and Dorothy Drive, extending north from Stocker, between Columbus and Pacific avenues, do not appear on the latest city map.

A few streets recently laid out in the Verdugo Woodlands tract are not listed in the directory and do not appear on the map. Forest, Dolores, Carmel, Fifth and Eights Sts., and Justin, Ruberta and Sonora avenues, have no residences nor business houses on them as yet. None of the streets in the Grand View or Verdugo Woodlands sections are listed in the householders' list, for the reason that the houses were not numbered when the directory was issued.

Central avenue, north and south, has the most residences on it, with Louise street and Maryland avenue closely following. Brand boulevard has the most houses of all classes, and is next to the longest continuous street, San Fernando Road coming first.

These two are the only northerly and southerly streets extending entirely through what is commonly called Glendale, Verdugo Road and its northern extensions is the longest continuous stretch of highway in the city, but the name Verdugo Road applies only as far north as the junction with Glendale avenue. From there it takes the name of Verdugo Canyon Road to the north city limits.

Broadway and Colorado are the only east and west streets extending entirely across the city.

COLUMBUS AVENUE

SCHOOL P.-T. A. IN SESSION AND REPORTS ARE MADE BY VARIOUS MEMBERS

The January meeting of the Columbus Avenue P.-T. A. was held Thursday in the kindergarten room of the school.

Reports were given which showed activity in all lines of the organization's work and the members demonstrated as usual their desire to be of practical help to the school and teachers by appropriating money to supply needs in the kindergarten room and in furnishing a second floor rest room for teachers of the school. The program of the afternoon was opened by a very practical and helpful talk by Prof. R. D. White on "Ways in Which the P.-T. A. May Be of Service."

Mrs. C. H. Peckham pleased her audience by singing with feeling "The Gypsy Love Song" and "Under the Rose," Mrs. Skow playing the violin obligato. Mrs. Skow is a musician of talent from Nebraska who is spending the winter in Glendale.

The remainder of the afternoon was given over to an informal discussion on "Thrift," during which many practical suggestions were made by various members present.

Report Upon Rainfall

Last night's rainfall was .43 of an inch, bringing the total for the storm, which began Sunday night, to 3.64 inches, and for the season to 6.55. Last season's record to this date was 6.99 inches.

The official weather forecast issued today is: Unsettled and possibly showers tonight or Saturday. Frost probable in morning.

AVIATION MEET IS CALLED

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 21—Northern California aviators will hold an aviation meet and convention here Saturday and Sunday, January 22-23, according to an announcement of Ivan Gates, member of the arrangements committee.

The aviation meet will be held Sunday on the airmail field at the Marina. Franklin Rose and John Jenkins will give an exhibition of aerial gymnastics, changing ships in midair. A parachute drop from an army balloon will be one of the features of the meet.

Those who will take part in the meet include: Earl Cooper, Cliff Durant, Walter T. Varbey, Sam Purcell, Irvan Gates, Joe Derham, Shirley Brush, F. P. Clevenger, A. W. Claverie, Spike Eldrige, M. J. Dooling, Captain Deckert and Daniel Davidson.

CALLS ELECTION ON ANNEXATION

DATE OF FEBRUARY 19 SET FOR NORTH GLENDALE TO CAST ITS BALLOTS

MINUTES OF BOARD

PETER L. FERRY IS AWARDED RESERVOIR WORK; SEWER IN BUSINESS SECTION

Annexation election for the North Glendale district will be held on February 19, it was decided at a meeting of the board of trustees last night. The polling place will be on the southeast corner of Pacific avenue and Kenneth Road.

The bid of Peter L. Ferry for construction of the city's reservoir was declared the lowest and he was awarded the contract. The Los Angeles Manufacturing company was awarded the contracts for the pipe lines in Glendale avenue and East Broadway.

The report of the zoning commission was referred to the committee of the whole.

On motion of Trustee Robinson, seconded by Trustee Henry, it was decided to go ahead with the sewage disposal plans in the business section of the city as already outlined.

The matter of securing a city nurse, urged by Trustee Bartlett, and also by Trustee Robinson, was deferred until T. W. Watson, city manager, reports regarding the condition of the municipal funds.

Official Minutes of Board

The official minutes of the proceedings of the board of trustees last night follow:

The board assembled at 8:20 p. m., all members being present. The minutes of the regular meeting of January 13, were read and approved.

C. L. Chandler presented to the board a petition signed by a number of residents of Verdugo Canyon asking that an election be called within the district described in the petition for the purpose of installing a sewer system. In this connection he presented a statement of the action taken by the Verdugo Woodlands Improvement association in regard to proposed bonds of the sewer district and requested that the expense of sewerage disposal and maintenance of the system be undertaken by the city at large. The communication was ordered to be filed and referred to the committee of the whole.

The petition was referred to the

13 NEW HOUSES

SECTION IN EASTERN PART OF CITY IS WELL BUILT UP WITH RESIDENCES

Among the sections in the eastern part of the city that show the effects of the past year's building campaign, is that part of Harvard between Adams and Verdugo Road. There have been thirteen new houses built there, some of them quite costly structures.

J. F. Gutekunst is responsible for two of them, having sold the first one he built and then erected another, which he now occupies. Perhaps the most notable one is a handsome five-room bungalow, nearing completion, that Chas. F. Carpenter built for his mother and himself. First he built a small house on the rear of the lot to live in while the front house and a garage were erected. He did all the work on the small house and the greater part of that on the other two, though both of hs legs are off above the knee.

He climbs ladders and scaffolds with amazing ease and wields hammer, saw and other tools like a veteran carpenter.

ARMY MAN HERE

RETIRED LIEUTENANT COLONEL SEEKING SMALL RANCH IN VICINITY OF GLENDALE

Lieutenant-Colonel Philip J. Lauber, retired, was in Glendale yesterday looking for a place to stay until he could find a suitable acre or two in Glendale to buy. He is desirous of settling down to the raising of chickens and vegetables, after many years of strenuous army life. He is delighted with Glendale's location, surroundings and climate.

Col. Lauber was in France nineteen months, with the inspector general's office.

FLOAT DEBT IS ALL WIPED OUT

MONEY ENOUGH TO PAY EVERY BILL AND LEAVE SURPLUS FOR 1922 DISPLAY

MATINEE A SUCCESS

LARGE CROWD IN ATTENDANCE AT GLENDALE THEATRE TO HELP CLEAR DEFICIT

The float debt—well, there is no float debt; the additional subscriptions and the benefit matinee given so generously by Manager Howe of Glendale Theatre yesterday afternoon have completely wiped it out.

The amount made by this matinee and contributed through Mr. Howe's liberal civic spirit to the float fund is $264.83. The total amount taken in was $285.35, from which a war tax of $20.52 was subtracted. This, with the subscriptions already received, assures the cancelling of all outstanding debts on the float.

The contributors since the original fund was closed appear on page 14 in this issue of The Evening News. As told by that page, the realty firms have given the sum of $288. Others have given or increased previous subscriptions to the amount of $250. So, counting in the fund from the matinee, the committee is given an addition of about $800. As the deficit is about $450, the suggestion is being made that the sum remaining after all bills are paid be placed in the bank as a start to the float fund of next year.

Many people are suggesting that a permanent float organization be formed and that the money remaining this year be kept intact as a start for the display to be made by the city in 1921, and it is presumed the present committee will take this action.

Sends in Most Money

Mrs. Fannie O. Stone, principal of the Pacific avenue school, has the honor of sending in the most money of any of the schools. All the schools

MAY BE COMBINED

CHARTER ELECTION AND ONE FOR BONDS MAY BE HELD SAME DAY, MARCH 29

If present plans of the board of city trustees are carried out, the two special elections scheduled for Glendale will be held on the same date, March 29.

The election at which the voters of the city will pass upon the proposed city charter is set for March 29. The trustees are also to call an election on the voting of bonds in the sum of $275,000 for a civic center and improvement of the water system.

At the meeting of the board last night, Hartley Shaw, city attorney, was asked if both elections could be held on the same day, March 29. He answered that he did not know of any provision of the law which would prohibit the two elections being held on the same day, but suggested that he be given time to make absolutely certain. The trustees, therefore, continued the matter.

It was pointed out by Trustee Stephenson that about $800 would be saved to the city if both elections are held on the same day.

LOWERING TRACKS

PACIFIC ELECTRIC PROMISES TO SEND LETTER WITHIN NEXT TEN DAYS

Mattison B. Jones, president of the Brand Boulevard Improvement association, is in receipt of a letter from H. B. Titcomb, vice president of the Pacific Electric Railway company, concerning the matter of lowering the tracks on Brand boulevard.

The letter says the railway company has the matter under active consideration, but that it will probably be a week or ten days before any positive recommendations can be made.

A committee from the association met with the railway heads in Los Angeles several weeks ago and the proposed improvement was discussed for about two hours.

When the definite letter is received from the Pacific Electric a meeting of the association will be called to consider it.

SHOW CANVAS CASKET AT PEETE TRIAL

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 21.—A faint but obnoxious odor permeated the court room of Judge Willis today when a heavy soiled canvas was unrolled and spread before a jury which is weighing the fate of Mrs. Lofie Louise Peete, charged with the murder of Jacob C. Denton, broker. The canvas had held the body of Denton while it reposed for three months in a wooden vault in the basement of his home.

Spectators, lawyers and jurors craned their necks. There was a distinct buzz and not a few gasps. The display of the molded canvas, Denton's death shroud, had no perceptible effect on Mrs. Peete. She gazed at it calmly.

The canvas "casket" was introduced as evidence by the prosecution when Earl Platt, undertaker, was on the witness stand describing how the body was prepared by the murderer for its secret tomb.

CHARLES M. SCHWAB GIVES OUT DENIAL

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

NEW YORK, Jan. 21—Charles M. Schwab, chairman of the Bethlehem Steel corporation, today flatly denied that the sum of $260,000, his personal expenses for October, 1919, had been charged against the shipping board. He appeared as a witness before the house committee investigating the board.

The charge had been made by Col. E. Abadie, former general comptroller of the board.

"I got no money whatever from the government—not even that dollar a year," Schwab declared.

FRANCE FAVORS MIDDLE OF ROAD COURSE

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

PARIS. Jan. 21.—France was expected today to authorize the government to take a "middle of the road" course in its foreign affairs. Following Premier Briand's reply to interpellations on his policies, the chamber of deputies was expected to approve his cabinet selection.

Briand's address to the chamber yesterday proclaimed friendship for America, a non-aggressive policy toward Russia and willingness to recognize the need of German rehabilitation.

GRANDMOTHER'S TRIP IS HALTED BY STORM

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

DES MOINES, Iowa, Jan. 21.—"Unless weather conditions improve, we may be forced to continue our journey from here by train," Mrs. H. H. Wheeler, Nebraska grandmother, who is flying to Washington with that state's electoral vote, said here this afternoon.

A heavy fog and the muddy condition of the flying field made a start impossible today.

NEW BUSINESSES

HOSPITALS, THEATRE, STORES AND OTHERS COME HERE DURING PAST YEAR

While Glendale has added many hundreds of new residences and many thousands of people during the past year, it has also added two big hospitals, one laboratory, one beautiful grammar school building, one fine theatre, one church building, two large furniture stores, six eating houses, some of them with other features, six meat markets, six grocery stores, two men's and 1 women's furnshings stores, one coffee shop, one drug store, two bakeries, two paint stores, two shoe repair shops, two barber shops, two lumber companies, two electric shops, one chemical shop, one mammoth greenhouse, one large window shade factory, one candy manufactory, one furniture factory, two hardwood flooring companies, and, yes, several real estate offices.

SHORT-CIRCUITED

LIGHTS BLINK AND RAILWAY SYSTEM IS TIED UP BY ROPES FROM BALLOON

Electric lights blinked in Glendale and service on the Pacific Electric railway system was interrupted for a short time yesterday morning as the result of ropes trailing from an army balloon becoming entangled with high voltage wires of the Southern California Edison line near Lankershim.

A short-circuit of the power lines resulted here and in Los Angeles. The cars were stopped for about ten minutes, delaying thousands of people on their way to work. Normal service was quickly resumed.

The accident was caused by one of two balloons leaving the Arcadia balloon school on a test flight dropping ropes. No one was injured and the ropes were quickly cast off the wires.

TREES IN STREETS

FIRST ORDER OF BOARD OF TRUSTEES RECONSIDERED; SOME GO, OTHERS STAY

All of the trees now standing in the streets of Glendale will not be removed, it was indicated at the meeting of the board of city trustees last night. Some trees will go; others will remain. An investigation will probably be made to determine which of the trees in the streets are to come down.

At the meeting of the trustees a week ago last night, on motion of Trustee Henry, seconded by Trustee Robinson and carried with the vote of Trustee Lapham, Trustees Bartlett and Stephenson voting in the negative, it was ordered that all trees be removed for public safety.

Last night G. B. Woodberry appeared before the board and urged a modification of the order. He said that some of the trees close to the curbs should stand, also those on Monterey Drive.

"The trees in the center of the streets may be considered a danger to two classes of auto drivers," said Mr. Woodberry. "I refer to speeders and persons intoxicated. Both classes are outside the law. If they are injured, they, being law violators themselves, have no ground for an action against the city."

Referred to Committee

Trustee Bartlett urged that the order be modified so that the less dangerous trees be permitted to stay.

Trustee Stephenson suggested the city forester make an investigation and report to the board.

Finally, on motion of Mrs. Bartlett, the matter was referred to the committee of the whole for consideration. Trustee Lapham seconded the motion. Trustees Henry and Robinson, taking the stand that all of the trees in the streets are a menace, voted against the motion.

It is predicted that a compromise will be effected so that certain trees remain and others be taken out.

CANNOT FORCE L. A. TO CONNECT

CITY ATTORNEY SHAW GIVES LEGAL OPINION REGARDING SEWAGE QUESTION

NO LAW TO ASSIST

WRITTEN ANSWER IS MADE TO TRUSTEE BOARD AND IS PRINTED IN FULL

The city of Glendale has no power, under the law, to compel the city of Los Angeles to permit it to connect up with the Los Angeles sewage disposal system.

The consent of the city of Los Angeles is necessary before Glendale can join that city's sewage disposal system; the law does not provide that this city can force Los Angeles to consent.

That, in brief, was the legal opinion given to the board of city trustees last night by Hartley Shaw, city attorney, in response to a request made at a former meeting of the board by Trustee Robinson.

The city of Los Angeles, it is understood, is willing to take care of Glendale's sewage—provided this city is annexed. But, according to statements made, Glendale does not propose to be annexed to Los Angeles and will, it is stated, work out its own sewage disposal problems.

Opinion Is Given in Full

Owing to the importance of the question, The Evening News gives Attorney Shaw's opinion in full. as follows:

"You have requested me to advise you whether the city of Glendale could in any manner compel the city of Los Angeles to allow the city of Glendale to connect its sewer system with the Los Angeles city sewers, and thus provide a means of disposal of the sewerage of the city of Glendale.

"After careful consideration of the matter I am of the opinion that there is no power of compulsion which could be exercised on the city of Los Angeles in this matter. There is a statute providing that two cities may, by agreement between themselves, provide for the joint use by both of the sewers of either city, but this

GUILD MEETING

NEAR EAST RELIEF WORK IS DISCUSSED; ELECTION OF DIRECTORS IS HELD

The meeting of St. Mark's Guild yesterday afternoon in the Guild hall was well-attended, twenty-five members bein present. The president, Mrs. B. O. Holbrook, introduced Reverend R. W. Mottern, in charge of the Near East Relief work, who gave a talk on the frightful condition of the people of the East; his appeal for help for them was responded to generously by the Guild members. The Guild itself voted to support one child for a year, and besides this several members pledged themselves to be personally responsible for the support of one child each.

Several elections left over from the previous meeting were made at this meeting. Mrs. G. G. Neill was chosen vice-president, and the following ladies were elected as directors: Miss Ellen Williams, Mrs. Helen Campbell, Mrs. J. L. McOmber.

SEEKING HOME

FIGHTS SNOWS TO COME TO SOUTHLAND; LOOKING FOR QUARTERS IN CITY

Bucking heavy snows, R. N. Stryker, formerly connected with the First National bank at Wilsall, Montana, drove through the states of Idaho and Utah in order to enter southern California and join his wife, who has been residing in Glendale since last September. He reports that he encountered very little snow in Montana.

Mr. and Mrs. Stryker are now residing in Burbank, being unable to obtain, at present, suitable quarters in this city. They wish to find a home in Glendale.

Dr. S. Herman of Butte, Montana, a friend of Mr. Stryker, arrived in Glendale yesterday and plans to spend about two months here.

REALTY SALES

G. F. DAIR BUYS ACRE; MUCH ACTIVITY SHOWN HERE IN PAST TEN DAYS

An optimistic view of business conditions is held by local real estate dealers.

One point which they emphasize is the fact that local people, who know Glendale, are buying property now, not waiting in the hope that prices will come down. This they regard as significant, inasumch as residents here have the retrospective as well as the prospective view of Glendale upon which to base their judgment. These people, looking backward, remember how values have increased here even within the year just past; they know how many new people have come in here in this short period of time, and they know that many others are looking for suitable places here as business locations as well as for homes.

Knowing this, Glendale people know that the city's continued prosperity is as sure as anything in the world can be; consequently they see the wisdom of investing their money here now.

G. F. Dair, of 818 East Colorado street, is one of this city's residents who believes that this is the time to buy Glendale property. He has just bought an acre on Colorado street between Glendale avenue and Cedar street, through the Hart Realty company.

Other Sales Are Made

The Hart Realty company has also sold for S. L. Smith, 134 Olive street, a lot in the 100 block, that street, to Mr. Houghton, of Van Nuys, who intends to erect a home there in the near future.

Another man who has been a resident of Glendale for several years has just bought a lot in the 400 block, North Louise street, which he selected because he believes in the future growth of that section, and upon which he will build a fine home at some future day. This sale was also made by the Hart Realty company. The sale of this lot closes the block.

O. F. Morgan has bought the lot at 1148 East California avenue, through the same firm, which has also sold a home at 431 West Colorado street to L. W. Hoge, an ex-service man whose family, consisting of himself, his wife and three children, will become residents of Glendale.

F. L. Woollard, through the Hart Realty company, has sold his home at 117 South Jackson street and bought the one at 145 South Pacific avenue.

All these sales by the Hart Realty company have been made since January 10.

Members of the Music Section of the Tuesday Afternoon club and of the Madrigal club were invited to attend a luncheon given yesterday by the Thursday Morning club of Eagle Rock at the Congregational church in that city. Those who attended were Mrs. C. L. Marlenee, Mrs. John Ray, Mrs. L. N. Hagood, Mrs. Chas. A. Parker, Mrs. E. Richardson, Mrs. Calvin Whiting and Mrs. George Draper. In the morning a musical program of MacDowell's compositions was given. Mrs. Putnam of Los Angeles, who was a pupil and a very good friend of Mr. and Mrs. MacDowell, gave a talk on Mr. MacDowell's life.

NEW BUILDING

HARRY BLUMENTHAL BUSINESS ROOMS ON SOUTH BRAND ARE NOW OCCUPIED

Of the thirty-seven new business rooms built on Brand and Broadway during the past twelve months, one ideally located, adapted to a retail business, is that just completed by Harry Blumenthal at 116 South Brand boulevard. The exterior finish is of old gold pressed brick, trimmed with white enameled brick. It has the new style elongated show windows, constructed in such a manner as to eliminate the objectionable mirror effect on goods being displayed, and presents a very handsome appearance.

The interior is finished in old ivory and white, equipped with the latest solar electric lighting fixtures, and a special electric heating device in addition to the gas system.

Mr. Blumenthal is being commended for adding this sightly, substantial structure to Glendale's business houses.

The firm of Roy L. Kent company was in charge of construction.

The building will be occupied by two firms, Messrs. Endicott & Larson, whose business covers the lines of special assessment and real estate and are well known here, and Robinson's Men's Shop, which will open with a large and complete new stock of wearing apparel for men and boys.

Both Business and Household Necessity

A local directory is a necessity in a business house or office and a great convenience in a home.

Questions arise daily as to the addresses of families or information is wanted in regard to the names of occupants of certain houses, that can be answered readily by reference to the local directory.

These questions arise in every business house or office. Not only do business and professional men need the directory themselves but there are many times when they accommodate their customers and clients by referring to this compendium of local information.

Grocers, dry goods and hardware merchants, lawyers and doctors, real estate dealers, banks, drug stores, restaurants, tailors, plumbers, lumber dealers and bulders and men and women engaged in any business, profession or trade find the value of a local directory exceeds the cost many times over.

A city directory is a convenience in the home also, giving, as it does, information as to the location of streets, household and business directories and enabling one to become familiar with the geography of the home city in a short time.

For a copy of the 1921 Glendale City Directory leave order at 139 South Brand boulevard, or call Glendale 132. The Directory will be issued early next week. Price $6. If ordered this week $5.

2000 Copies Per Issue

The increasing demand for The Evening News in the homes of the citizens of Glendale has made it necessary to print 2,000 copies per day.

The modern equipment of the publishing department of The Evening News makes the work a pleasure instead of a task.

As was stated in these columns a few weeks ago, it has been ascertained that 99½ per cent of the population of Glendale and vicinity are loyal boosters for the community daily and it is those progressive citizens to whom the credit is due of making it possible for Glendale to have a daily paper that is second to none in the state, in cities of equal population.

The superior worth of The Evening News in every home is a household conversation. The 99½ per cent of Glendale's population are deserving of congratulations.

however, took an active interest in selling the tickets and all did well.

Artistically, the matinee was an equally great success. The pictures were much enjoyed and the solo numbers of Mme. Clement were received with enthusiastic applause. The children in the audience report that Mme. Clement's playing suits them, and that the numbers they liked best were "My Little Gray Home in the West," the Sousa march, and "Just a-Wearying for You."

And speaking of the children — there were a goodly number of them in the audience and they were remarkably orderly and well behaved.

R. F. Kitterman, chairman of the float committee, in announcing the figures this morning, said that the float committee were delighted with the results of Mr. Howe's generous plan to help pay the expenses of the float that won first prize for Glendale in the Rose Tournament on New Year's Day.

Thanks are also due to the children who worked so hard and so successfully in selling the tickets for the matinee.

Looks Up Michigan Decision

"Sometime ago when this matter was under consideration W. E. Hewitt informed me that when he was on a visit to Detroit, Michigan, he had been told that there was some decision of the courts of Michigan by which the city of Detrot was compelled to permit one of its suburbs incorporated as a separate city to connect with the Detroit sewer system. I have hunted up this decision, which is the case of Detroit vs. Highland Park, 186 Michigan, 166. The facts there involved are in brief as follows:

"The village of Highland Park is a suburb of the city of Detroit, but separately incorporated and adjoins the city of Detroit. In 1898 the village of Highland Park began the construction of a sewer and was about to connect it with one of the sewers of the city of Detroit which ran up to the common boundary line of the two cities. It appears to have made no agreement with the city of Detroit regarding the matter. The city of Detroit thereupon started a suit to enjoin the village of Highland Park from making this connection After a trial of this suit the court decreed that the village should be allowed to make such a connection, basing this judgment upon findings to the effect that the natural drainage of the village was across the city of Detroit and that the city of Detroit had, by various improvements constructed by it, obstructed and blocked this natural drainage and that, therefore, the village was entitled to use the Detroit sewers on paying its share of the cost thereof. This was the decision of the trial court only and apparently both parties were satisfied for no appeal was taken and the sewer connection was made accordingly and maintained for several years. During this time, however, the amount of sewerage to be carried from the village and also from the city of Detroit so greatly increased , that the sewer main, to which the connection in question had been made, became inadequate and a nuisance was created.

No Agreement Is Reached

"The village of Highland Park attempted to agree with the city of Detroit on some enlargement of the sewer main jointly used by the parties to take care of this nuisance, but the city of Detroit would make no agreement and thereupon the village of Highland Park brought the proceeding which resulted in the above mentioned decision. Previous to doing this, however, the village resorted to the state board of health which, under the statutes of Michigan, had general supervision and control of sewerage disposal systems, and the state board of health ordered that the city of Detroit should permit Highland Park to connect with one of the Detroit sewers in order to abate the nuisance which then existed. The action brought by the village of Highland Park was brought in part to enforce this order of the state board of health. When the matter finally came before the supreme court of Michigan it held, first, that the right of the said village of Highland Park to have its sewer system connected with that of the city of Detroit was conclusively established and determined by the decree made by the court years ago, which had not been appealed from and had become final and binding upon both parties. The supreme court did not at all pass upon the question whether, in the absence of such a decree, it would have ordered a joint use of the sewer as an independent proposition. The court held in the next place that as the parties were actually using the same sewer jointly and had jointly created the nuisance thereby, the state board of health had power to issue an order directed to both of them requiring them to take steps to abate such nuisance and, therefore, required the two cities to comply with the order of the state board.

Board of Health Controls

"As will readily be seen, neither of the two main facts upon which this decision of the supreme court of Michigan rests exists in the case of the city of Glendale as against the city of Los Angeles. There has been no former decision determining that the two sewer systems could be connected, and there has been no connection and no nuisance created. Moreover, the statute of California giving the state board of health control over sewerage dsposal is not of such a broad and general character as that in effect in Michigan. This Michigan decision, therefore, cannot be of any use to us in the present situation and I have been unable to find any other decision upon this subject.

"Considering the matter independent of authority and having in mind the constitutional and statutory provisions of our own state, I think there can be no question that the city of Los Angeles has control over its own sewer system and has full power to refuse to permit any other city to connect therewith. Los Angeles is a city having a freeholders' charter and is, by virtue thereof, exempt from state control in its municipal affairs. It is generally recognized that a sewer system for the benefit of its inhabitants of a city is a municipal affair, and hence it comes within this rule giving the city full control thereof.

"Yours very truly,
"HARTLEY SHAW,
"City Attorney."

MEET AT LUNCH

TWENTY-ONE OF GLENDALE'S RETAIL MERCHANTS HEAR PLANS FOR C. OF C.

Twenty-one retail merchants met at lunch at the White Inn at noon yesterday, as part of the Chamber of Commerce reorganization campaign, heard talks by C. E. Neale and J. O. Stevenson and adopted the following resolution:

"We, the undersigned retail merchants of Glendale, after hearing an explanation of the plans for reorganizing the Glendale Chamber of Commerce, as presented to us in meeting today by C. E. Neale, of the Citizens' Campaign committee, and J. O. Stevenson, campaign director, do heartily and unanimously indorse the plan and pledge our hearty support both in the campaign and to the new and greater Chamber of Commerce."

Those in Attendance

Those in attendance at yesterday's meeting were C. E. Neale, J. R. Watson, W. L. Moore, George E. Williams, J. E. Pope, David Bisno, A. C. Barlow, H. G. MacBain, R. W. Brown, J. F. Kuntzner, S. L. Walker, J. H. Smith, S. G. Smith, J. E. Walker, G. H. Miller, Glen B. Porter, James H. Wittmeyer, H. Bradberry, Will M. Wright, H. F. Beauchamp and E. S. Bliven.

A poll was taken and but one of those present is now a member of the Chamber of Commerce and only four had been members in other localities.

A number of automobile men met on Wednesday and agreed to render active service in the campaign.

The real estate and insurance men met at the White Inn at noon today and the allied manufacturing group is scheduled to meet next Tuesday, Mr. Stevenson stated today.

ARRESTED HERE

Charged with issuing a worthless check in an automobile deal, E. E. Phillips, a returned over-seas soldier, who has been receiving treatment at the Thornycroft sanitarium, was arrested yesterday by Deputy Sheriffs Lips and Anderson on telegraphic instructions from Sheriff Skaggs of Safford, Arizona.

According to the telegraphic information, Phillips gave a check that was worthless, but Phillips declared that his arrest is all a mistake and that he will make the check good just as soon as he receives a payment of $1,000 which, he said, is due him from the government. After his arrest he was taken to a ward at the county hospital.

Combating That Glare

Particularly designed for the benefit of motor car drivers is a new contrivance which the inventor, Wm. E. Snaman of Pittsburg describes as a "vision deflector." It is intended, he says, "to eliminate the blinded confusion caused by the use of glaring or excessively bright headlights on passing machines, and thereby to prevent many accidents."

The device is a flat circular disk, of celluloid or other opaque material, which may be attached by a clamp to the nose of the user, or else fastened to the visor of his cap. In the latter case it is meant to be fixed on with a hinge at the underside of the visor, so as to be folded out of the way when not in use.

The disk projects edgewise directly outward between the eyes of the driver. When the latter finds his left eye blinded by an approaching motor car, he can, by slightly turning his head to the right bring the "deflector" to such a position that his right eye is shaded. This is what ordinarily occurs when cars, turning to the right, pass each other. In an opposite instance, where the right eye might be blinded for the moment, the driver would turn his head in the other direction.

There are two ways by which a man may make a bore of himself: Trying to show that he is right and trying to prove that another is wrong.

Auction Penn Relics

LANCASTER, Penn.—Household furniture said to have been owned by William Penn was sold at auction at the home of Amos F. Huber of Baumgardner's station, this county, in whose family the articles have been for thirteen generations.

An antique chest of drawers was sold for $175 and a canopy bed brought $80. Chairs of colonial design aroused spirited bidding, the prices ranging from $10 to $30. Unique among the offerings were ancient wooden milking stools and crockery.

The sale attracted dealers and collectors from distant points. Curiosity was aroused over several crocks of apple butter made thirty years ago which was still edible. Sale of the relics netted the owner $900.

BLAME JAPS FOR MASSACRE

SHANGHAI—Atrocities of which Koreans living on Chinese soil were the victims and which were brought about between October 9 and November 5, 1920, by Japanese, who have arbitrarily invaded the territory of upper Manchuria, are described in a statement by the Korean Red Cross.

Slain and injured persons total 2933 in six counties, the report asserted, while 1,982 buildings were destroyed in the same area. Twenty-five churches were burned and nine school buildings wrecked.

Not only lives and property were destroyed by the invading Japanese, but food supplies were confiscated, the indictment stated. Among other foodstuffs said to have been either removed or destroyed were 53,256 piculs of grain. A picul is 135 pounds.

Major General Sato, representing the Japanese War office, has attempted to justify conditions in Manchuria by a statement in which he blames the missionaries. He said, according to the Red Cross report:

"The missionaries who are now accusing the Japanese troops of cruelty are themselves the cause of the tragedy. I regret that the Koreans are not alive to the fact that their real grievance is against the mischief-making missionaries.

"It is a coincidence that many of the plotters who have been executed were Christians, but the plotters in many cases ally themselves with the missionaries for the sake of the security thus afforded."

The probability is that when the world finally does learn the truth about Russia it will have lost most of its interest in knowing.

WHY U. S. LOSES FRENCH TRADE

WASHINGTON—The French government places at $2,000,000,000 the value of the furniture and other house furnishings destroyed during the war, says J. A. M. de Sanchez, of the French commission in the United States.

France is greatly in need of manufactured goods, and although the country has reduced her total imports from the United States by over $200,000,000 since the beginning of 1920, the reduction has not been in the imports of manufactured goods.

A lack of accurate knowledge of the value of the French market, and not the exchange situation, says the French commissioner, is the real cause of the failure of American manufacturers to obtain at least a portion of the foreign trade which is now going to Belgium, England and Italy. American goods are in general not higher in price than those of Belgium and England, and in most cases are at least 10 per cent higher in quality.

It would be a real deadlock if every person would refuse to sell because he could not get his price.

The married man who goes to the barber shop to get away from home at least gets a different line of talk.

VERDUGO SEWER

cost of main trunk line. This estimate as furnished by city engineer calls for an expenditure of $40,370 for trunk line alone not including laterals on side streets, also not including disposal works. At this meeting and also a previous meeting attended by possibly fifty of the residents of that section, motions prevailed unanimously that a municipal district be formed for the purpose of issuing bonds necessary to cover the cost of this trunk line.

"At the meeting Friday evening the matter of disposal works was discussed somewhat and a motion prevailed requesting the city to arrange for paying the cost of the disposal works from the general revenues of the city or by general bond issue. The people of that district feel that they will be taking on quite a burden in the proposed $40,000 bond issue and considering that each property holder in addition to paying his proportion of the tax on account of this bond issue will have to stand direct assessment for sewer pipes that may be placed in the street upon which this property fronts. Also considering that the city as a whole is vitally interested in the installation of a sewer system in the canyon for the protection of the water supply, it would seem that their request is not unreasonable.

Proposition Is Submitted

"In this connection we would respectfully submit the following:

"That approximately $10,000 be added to the bond issue for the purpose of constructing disposal works including buying necessary land in connection therewith and that the city from the revenues of the water department pay the bond redemption and interest on that portion of the issue which would be for the first ten years $600 per year after which payments would also have to be made on the principal which would be $333.33 per year based on forty-year bonds that would have at that time thirty years to run. These bonds need not be all issued at once as the disposal works would be of small capacity at first. The bonds held in reserve, however, would insure the city funds sufficient to increase the capacity of the disposal works as needed.

Cost of Disposal Works

"Mr. Hill estimates the cost of the disposal works at $5000. The additional $5000 would be for land. It is quite desirable that several acres of land be acquired by the city upon which to place these disposal works.

"There would be a distinct advantage to the city as a whole in having ample funds to construct disposal works as suggested above in that a very small plant could be installed at first at a nominal expense and experiments could be made trying out various methods of purifying the sewage, the results of which would be of great value to the city as a whole in working out plans for general sewage disposal. In our opinion it is going to require a considerable time to arrive at the best and most economical means of handling the sewage of Glendale and an opportunity such as would be afforded under the plan set forth above of studying the proposition of disposal on a small scale should have considerable value.

Board Justified, He Says

"Considering the above we believe the board would be justified in complying with the request of the Verdugo Woodlands association that the city take out of general revenues the interest and redemption on that portion of the bond issue that will be used for disposal works.

"It is our understanding that C. L. Chandler, as president of the Verdugo Woodlands Improvement association, will present a petition this evening requesting the board to take the necessary proceedings to form the municipal improvement district for the purpose of voting bonds to cover the cost of main trunk line. We understand that he will in that connection request on behalf of the association that the city provide funds to cover the cost of disposal works in connection therewith."

The retiring officers of the Post are entertaining the newly-elected officers on this occasion and the public is cordially invited to attend. There will be fancy dances by Dorothy and Kathleen Woods, fine music by the jazz orchestra and many other attractions. James McBryde and Captain W. B. Keily, who are managing the affair, promise an exceedingly pleasant time to all who attend.

There promises to be a goodly crowd of lovers of Scottish bagpipe music at Masonic Temple tonight when Watson's Royal Scottish Pipe band will give a concert under the auspices of the Tuesday Afternoon club. Besides the bagpipe music there are to be Scotch singers and Highland dancers. The proceeds are for the clubhouse fund.

New Business Opening

Among the many lines of business locating in Glendale during the past year of its marvelous growth, is the one that will occupy the new Blumenthal building, two doors north of the Glendale Theatre, at 116-A South Brand. The new store will be Robinson's Men's Shop. It will open in this location soon with a large, complete, new stock of men's and boys' apparel.

J. A. Robinson, the owner, has been connected with Glendale business firms for the past one and one-half years, and his friends are certain he will be given his share of the public's patronage.

Grocery to Be Sold

The grocery at 244 North Brand boulevard owned by R. W. Norton is to be taken over on Monday by S. R. Bush and his son, it is stated today. In the meantime, a large sale is being conducted at the grocery for the purpose of reducing stock and many bargains are being offered, according to the announcement in the advertising columns of The Evening News. The sale of goods continues tomorrow. Mr. Bush and his son come to Glendale from Oklahoma. When they take possession of the store they will have an announcement to make.

COLLEGE TEACHING IS SCORED

SACRAMENTO — Lines between the college campus and the outside world must be done away with, declared Dr. Aurelia Henry Reinhert, president of Mills college, in a speech here. Colleges must start teaching practical subjects, added Dr. Reinhart.

"At present colleges are educating young people for idleness," she said. "Many people look upon college as a place to spend a few happy years. There is no room in our schools for the people who do not use the knowledge they get there.

"We must get closer to the present needs of the day in our colleges and participate as full citizens," said the doctor.

Extensive building alterations on the Brand Boulevard Branch of the Los Angeles Trust and Savings Bank are now in progress.

The ground floor of the building is owned by Messrs. George Hull and John L. Bishop. The owners of the property are remodeling the upper floors of the building now occupied by the American Legion, as offices for professional men, incorporating all modern conveniences required by physicians, dentists and attorneys.

The bank will put a marble front on the building and is remodeling the entire interior of the ground floor with beamed ceiling handsomely decorated and fixtures executed in gray marble. The central public lobby will have marble floor, and very complete system of indirect lighting is being provided that will enhance the decorative scheme of the room.

New vaults of reinforced concrete are being installed for safe deposit purposes. They will be equipped with massive vault doors, electrical protection throughout and the most modern safe deposit boxes and interior filing cases. This work is being fabricated in the factory of the Remington Company of Los Angeles.

Convenience of the customers which has been the aim of the Los Angeles Trust and Savings Bank has resulted in the co-operation of escrow departments, customers' private offices, coupon booths, and ladies' room, in connection with the safe deposit department and practically as complete an installation as is found in any large city bank.

The rapid growth of the Los Angeles Trust and Savings Bank in Glendale made it necessary for them to enlarge. The new banking room will have a frontage of 75 feet and is considered none too large in view of the rapid business growth in and around Glendale.

P. E. ACCIDENT

THIRD CAR ON TRAIN COMING TO GLENDALE GOES OFF RAILS; NONE HURT

A number of Glendale residents homeward bound on the 5:15 Pacific Electric train on Wednesday evening, escaped injury by a narrow margin when an accident occurred at the south end of the three track passing section just north of Sunset boulevard.

The three-car train was switched to the middle track to allow the Edendale car to pass. The first two cars made the contact correctly, but the third one for some unknown reason failed to make it, and leaving the track, was dragged a little distance by the other cars. It had turned sideways to the track and bumped into the car ahead. Had the train been moving rapidly this third car would probably have been overturned. As it was, its passengers were considerably bumped and shaken, but no one was injured.

The train was filled to capacity, it being the hour when many workers in Los Angeles were returning to their Glendale homes. As many passengers from the third car as could be accommodated, boarded the two cars ahead; the rest had to wait till the wrecking crew arrived to take the obstructing car off the track, or until provision was made in some other manner for their transportation to Glendale.

TELL TO POLICE

THOSE WHO FIGURE IN AUTO ACCIDENTS MUST REPORT TO AUTHORITIES

If you figure in an automobile accident, report the fact at once to the police.

If you do not, you are liable to arrest, according to the warning being issued by the authorities.

A campaign, general over southern California, is now under way to enforce city ordinances and state laws relative to reporting accidents. The claim is made that many persons who have figured in accidents have failed to make a report to the police.

Big Demand for Nuts

Nuts are coming into use as foods—that is, as part of the regular dietary—to an extent unthought of in former days. There is a steadily increasing demand for them for soups, nut butters, nut salads, nut candy, salted nuts, and the like. Several books have been published devoted to nut cookery.

Some bakeries even make nut bread, which is considered a great delicacy, costing 60 cents a loaf. The people who forswear meat, and who call themselves vegetarians or fruitarians, depend on nuts for "protein" (the stuff that make muscle and blood) in which fruits and vegetables are deficient, generally speaking. Many nut foods are extensively advertised by manufacturers for the special use of nonmeat eaters.

In 1919 the state of California produced 7250 tons of almonds and 26,250 tons of the so-called English walnuts. During the same twelvemonth we imported 17,745 tons of almonds and 15,747 tons of walnuts; also 10,263 tons of filberts, 2506 tons of European chestnuts (marrons) and 2805 tons of palm nuts.

This, however, was by no means all. We imported during the last year 4,053,280 cocoanuts and 130,811 tons of cocoanut "meats."

The coal mine purchased by the state of South Dakota is now shipping 200 tons of coal a day. Production will be tripled when new track facilities are completed.

In 1365, Edward III. forbade the playing of football, and made it a criminal offense, because it hindered the progress of his pet hobby—archery.

Too many official inquiries becomes weak-kneed when the probers begin to reach the "men higher up."

There has been considerable talk about it, but not a single profiteer has been hanged in two years.

After the war Europe talked a great deal about demobilization, but what it actually got is demoralization.

FEAR ACCIDENTS

USE OF DYNAMITE IN STUMP REMOVING IN THIS CITY TO BE SUPERVISED

Requests for permission to use dynamite in breaking up stumps are coming in rather frequently to the authorities of the city of Glendale, with the result that, at the suggestion of Trustee Henry, no further requests will be granted unless the work is done under the direction of a member of the police department or some other municipal employe competent to supervise the work.

The city officials, it is explained, are perfectly willing to issue permission for property owners to use powder to assist in the removing of tree stumps, but they fear that an accident will occur or, perhaps, adjoining buildings damaged, if the explosive is not properly handled. Therefore, someone from a city department will, in the future, supervise the use of the explosive, it is announced.

What Shall I Eat?

The majority of the great American people work, sleep, and particularly eat in indecision, according to the manager of a lunchroom located in the financial district of Philadelphia.

He figures that at the end of the present year he will have handed over his counters 1,000,000 lunches. But he deplores the fact that many of his patrons obstruct the way for other customers by taking on an average of "a minute and a half" to decide what they want to eat.

"It takes longer," the manager said, "for my counterman to assist the average customer to make up his mind than to actually serve him.

"It costs me money," he said, regretfully. "Persons who are otherwise prospective patrons do not come in to my restaurant because they can see through the windows that all the chairs are occupied and the counter lined with 'doubtfuls.'

"I cannot suggest to 'please make up your mind before you approach the counter; that would be poor business."

Efforts have been made to cope with this problem, the manager said. Attractive and suggestive signs were suspended from the ceiling to catch the eye of the patron. "Our sirloin of beef is particularly fine today," one sign read. Another announced that the special order of the day was "Calf's brain omelet." Other signs under the heading "What to eat today" were stuck on the windows where they could be glanced at from the outside.

"But this only seems to add to the luncher's doubt," the manager said.

LOST AND FOUND

NEW STATE-WIDE BUREAU IS BEING ESTABLISHED BY AUTOMOBILE CLUB

Word of the founding of a new department, a state-wide lost and found bureau, has been received by the Glendale branch of the Automobile Club of Southern California.

It is explained that in an effort to return to autoists articles which have tumbled out of cars, the Automobile Club of Southern California has established a "lost and found" bureau where those who find such articles may turn them in and those who have lost such articles may apply for them.

Request Made of Owners

In line with this plan of aiding autoists to find robes and similar articles, owners are requested to attach tags to their robes, and so forth. Then when the robe is lost the finder, be he honest, will turn it in to the nearest auto club branch, it will be sent to club headquarters and if the owner applies there, will be returned to him.

The automobile club is sending out information regarding the formation of the bureau to all of its branches.

Mission Is Difficult

Although his mission is to investigate and report to Washington, rather than attempt to straighten out the tangled affairs of turbulent Cuba there are few persons who will envy Maj. Gen. Enoch Crowder, who is now on the island as an envoy of the United States.

The problem confronting him is two-fold, financial and political. The moratorium declared by President Menocal has caused widespread embarrassment not only to the business men of Cuba, but to foreigners engaged in trade with them. The November presidential election in Cuba has left much bad feeling. The official announcement gave victory to Zayas and the conservatives. But the liberals will not have it so, making allegations of wholesale frauds.

General Crowder has no power to decide this question, but he is ordered to investigate and make a report. Whichever side is favored, serious trouble is threatened. Cubans have the revolutionary habit, but fighting is one thing the United States will not stand for. If we should have to intervene again it would be for the third time. Some say it ought to be the last time. But permanent American occupation of the island would not be in accord with our traditional policy.

The physical benefits which American occupation conferred on Cuba are acknowledged by all the world. There is reason to believe that our moral influence also has been for good. We have never wanted to get anything from Cuba for ourselves, but we have insisted that she maintain a stable government. Congress wisely kept a string on Cuba. Fortunately there is no question as to our right to make Cuba behave herself. If General Crowder can settle these questions and render intervention unnecessary he will add to the debt of gratitude which the nation owes him for his masterly handling of the draft in the great war.

COLOMBIA RICH IN PLATINUM

Platinum, which was worth $9 an ounce not very many years ago, fetches $110 an ounce today, or more than five times as much as gold.

It is said to have been first discovered in Colombia by a Spaniard named Antonio Ulloa. For a long time thereafter miners in Colombia, finding it commonly associated with gold, threw platinum away. Recently seventeen pounds of it were recovered from the foundation of an old building in the Quibdo district, the site of which was an ancient refuse dump.

The present high price of platinum is largely due to the falling off of supplies from Russia, which has been the principal producer. But the mining of the metal in Colombia has been greatly stimulated thereby.

It may not be possible to reform a criminal by sending him to prison, but a lot of folk feel better to know that he is there.

city clerk for report as to the number of qualified voters whose names appeared thereon. Mr. Newport also addressed the board in reference to the subject.

Removal of Street Trees

G. B. Woodberry addressed the board in regard to its recent order for removal of trees in the driveways and the streets of the city. He called attention of the board to the fact that there is a row of shade trees now standing in the center of Monterey Road between Verdugo Road and Glendale avenue, and requested that the board modify this order. Communication was read from the city clerk of Alhambra accompanied by a copy of an ordinance adopted by the trustees of that city, urging the county board of supervisors to take necessary steps to care for all cases of smallpox developed within the county of Los Angeles. Referred to the committee of the whole.

Communication was read from F. M. Riley complaining of the parking of automobiles on Kenilworth avenue south of Broadway in front of his property. The chairman stated that the city has no ordinance governing this matter and communication was referred to the committee of the whole.

Application was presented from Peter L. Ferry for a permit to do street work, consisting of a five-foot sidewalk on the east side of Adams street, corner of Maple and the same was granted.

The report of the zoning committee was presented to the board and referred to the committee of the whole.

On motion of Trustee Henry recommendation of the engineer of the public service department was approved and contract ordered to be entered into by roll call vote, all voting aye.

He also recommended the acceptance of the bid of the Los Angeles Manufacturing company to supply 1800 feet of six-inch riveted pipe at 83½ cents per running foot, and on motion of Trustee Bartlett it was so ordered, all voting aye.

He also recommended that bid of Los Angeles Manufacturing company be accepted for the installation of the Glendale avenue pipe line. On motion of Trustee Bartlett, recommendation was adopted and contract was ordered to be entered into in accordance with the same, on roll call vote, all voting aye.

The city manager reported on the bids for bonds previously referred to him recommending the acceptance of the bid of the First National Bank and of the Los Angeles Manufacturing company, and the same ordered to be accepted by roll call vote, all voting aye.

Annexation Petition

A petition was presented to the board asking that an election be called within the territory described in the petition, for the annexation of said territory to the city of Glendale. The petition was referred to the city clerk to report upon and the clerk later reported that the petition was signed by more than 25 per cent of the registered voters in the district outlined, and that the said 25 per cent represented by petition were registered as voters in the district at the time they signed same.

The demands were presented and referred to the finance committee and on motion of Trustee Robinson the same were approved and warrants ordered to be issued in payment thereof.

Transfer of Funds

On recommendation of the city manager it was ordered that the sum of $10,351.43 be transferred from the general budget fund to the general reserve fund, in return of loan, on roll call vote, all voting aye.

Also the transfer of $5000 from the general reserve fund to the public service fund as a loan, by roll call vote, all voting aye.

The city manager recommended the acceptance of a portion of the bid of the Keystone Iron and Steel Works on fire hydrants, as set forth in his communication and on motion his recommendation was adopted and the contract ordered to be entered into, on roll call vote, all voting aye.

City Manager Reports

The city manager reported that pursuant to the action of the board on the 13th instant, he had made arrangements for the removal of certain trees.

In regard to application of K. Adams and G. S. Wooding for permit to establish a cleaning, pressing and dyeing business at 212½ South Brand boulevard, he recommended that the permit be granted in accordance with their application, which states that the cleaning and dyeing work is to be done elsewhere. On motion the recommendation was adopted and permit granted.

The city manager presented in duplicate a lease covering an easement to the city of Glendale to lay and maintain sixteen-inch water main on Pacific Electric right of way across Grand View avenue, consideration $5, and recommended that same be authorized. On motion the recommendation of the city manager was adopted and lease ordered to be accepted.

The city manager presented a financial statement of the water and light business for the first half of the present fiscal year together with certain recommendations for adjustments, in budget appropriations. The report shows an unexpectedly large increase in receipts of these departments, in case of the water business, amounting to $14,560.17 in excess of the estimate and of the light business, $17,131.36 in excess of the estimate for the first half of the present fiscal year.

Reports on Removal of Sand

The city manager presented a report in regard to the removal of sand from the Verdugo wash, making certain recommendations in regard to the same which were on motion of Trustee Robinson approved and ordered to be put into effect as recommended.

On motion of Trustee Robinson, it was ordered that the city charge 15 cents for every load of sand containing two cubic yards or less taken from the Verdugo wash.

A report of the city manager in regard to sewer system in Verdugo canyon was presented to the board, read, and ordered filed.

The city engineer reported that the petition filed at a previous meeting of the board asking for the improvement of Dayton Court, represents 56 per cent of the frontage.

On motion of Trustee Robinson it was ordered that city engineer be instructed to prepare plans for the improvement of Dayton Court with a four-foot sidewalk and a two-foot parkway, by roll call vote, all voting aye.

Arden Avenue Improvement

The city engineer reported on bids received at a previous meeting of the board for the improvement of Arden avenue, the lowest bid being that of O'Keefe and Tracy, amounting to $10,711.20. He also reported that the protest received against doing the work at the present time represents 25 per cent of the frontage. On motion of Trustee Henry it was ordered that all bids for the improvement of Arden avenue be rejected, on roli coll, all voting aye.

Patterson Avenue

The city engineer reported in regard to the ten-foot strip on Patterson avenue, required to be taken to make the street a uniform width of sixty feet, that the amount had probably been omitted from former proceedings on account of a number of residences fronting on this strip.

The city attorney gave it as his opinion that there is no legal objection to including this ten-foot strip in the assessment district for the opening and widening the street making the uniform width of street 60 ft. On motion of Trustee Bartlett, the engineer was instructed to survey and furnish the necessary description to enable the city attorney to prepare his proceedings for the opening and widening of Patterson avenue between Pacific avenue and the northerly prolongation of Kenilworth avenue, on roll call, all voting aye.

City Attorney's Opinion

The city attorney presented a written opinion in regard to the question previously submitted to him as to whether the city of Glendale has any legal power to compel the city of Los Angeles to allow Glendale to connect with the Los Angeles sewer system. The substance of the city attorney's opinion is that no such power exists.

The city clerk was instructed to furnish copies of the opinion to the newspapers of the city.

Annexation Election

The city attorney having prepared resolution calling for an election in the territory desiring to be annexed to the city of Glendale as outlined in petition formerly presented, the same was on motion of Trustee Lapham adopted as Resolution No. 1152 calling for an election for the annexation of certain territory designated as North Glendale district on the 19th day of February, 1921, and naming place for the election and officers to conduct same.

SEES REDUCTION

COST OF STRAWBERRIES WILL BE ABOUT 10 CENTS, SAYS LARGEST PURCHASER

Here's some more encouragement to those looking for a reduction in prices.

Strawberries will sell this year at retail at about 10 cents a box—like they did "in the good old days."

Anyway, that's what A. Claude Braden says. And he's the largest purchaser of strawberries in this vicinity, it is claimed. He is the head of a large preserving company that buys strawberries by the thousands of crates.

According to Mr. Braden, there s a largely ncreased acreage in strawberries this year and there is, indicated by present prospects, every reason to believe there wil be an unusually heavy crop.

Last year his company paid 15 cents a pound for the berries. The year before the price was 12½ cents. Two years ago it was 6½ cents. He predicts that this season his company will pay about 7 cents—perhaps 8 cents—and at that figure, he says, the retail price will be about 10 cents per basket, with three baskets for 25 cents. He also states that there has been a large increase in the fig acreage.

HUNTER AND BEAR ARE KILLED

HAZLETON, Pa.—Jacob Hait, aged fifty-six, of Pine Swamp, Carbon county, was killed near his home by a bear which he had brought down with a rifle shot. Hait, under the impression that the animal was dead, had started to draw the bear's blood when it struck him with a forepaw and sank its teeth into his face. The blow broke his neck. The bear died a few minutes later.

SCHOOL LADS EAT GOLDFISH

FON DU LAC, Wis.—When William Schuessler and John Collins, seniors in the high school, were dared to swallow live goldfish they offered to wager that they could do it.

A crowd of students had made up a collection of between $5 and $6 and offered it as a side bet against the two boys. Schuessler and Collins took turns in fishing in a bowl for the live goldfish, and while the startled group stared in amazement each boy flicked a wriggling fish down his throat.

To "top off" the delicacy the boys ate several dishes of ice cream. They declared the fish were entirely palatable and offered to repeat the stunt if anyone wanted to make a wager.

FIND SMALL HERD OF SHEEP

PORTLAND, Ore.—Although hunters and sportsmen have declared the mountain sheep extinct in western Oregon for several years, word has now been brought back to this city from reliable sources by W. H. Dirrett of Albany that through some unknown means a herd of seventeen to twenty of these animals has been discovered in the southwestern part of Douglas County. Local sportsmen have learned of them and are determined that these now almost extinct animals will be given greatest care from ruthless hunters who aided in their rapid extinction only a few years back, declared a number of game wardens here.

Such bonds must be examined and approved by the Council. All bonds when approved shall be filed with the City Clerk, except the City Clerk's bond, if any, which shall be filed with the Treasurer. All the provisions of any law of this State relating to the official bonds of officers as then existing shall apply to such bonds, except as herein otherwise provided. In all cases where Surety Company bonds are approved by the Council, the premium therefor shall be paid by the City.

He shall possess the same power in making surveys, plats and certificates, as is given by law to city engineers and to county surveyors. He shall be the custodian of and shall be responsible for all maps, plans, profiles, field notes and other records and memoranda belonging to the City, and pertaining to his office and to the work thereof; all of which he shall keep in proper order and condition, with full indexes thereof, and shall turn over the same to his successor, taking from him duplicate receipts therefor, one of which he shall file with the Clerk. All maps, plans, profiles, field notes, estimates and other memoranda of surveys and other professional work made or done by him or under his direction or control, during his term of office, or that he may have received from his predecessor, shall remain the property of the City.

SECTION 3. The City Engineer shall be ex-officio street superintendent and as such shall have the general care and supervision of streets and of the maintenance and repair thereof and the care of and custody of tools and implements belonging to the City of Glendale and used for street construction and repair. He may employ such foremen, laborers and other employes as the Council may by ordinance authorize.

SECTION 4. SUPERINTENDENT OF BUILDINGS: He shall have charge of the issuing of building permits and shall see that no permit is issued unless the building plans show conformity to all State laws and all ordinances of the City applicable thereto. He shall see that the laws and ordinances regulating the construction of buildings are enforced. He shall perform all duties that are imposed by existing ordinances of the City on the Building Inspector, the Plumbing Inspector and the Inspector of Electric Wiring.

ARTICLE XXII.
PUBLIC SERVICE DEPARTMENT

SECTION 1. THE PUBLIC SERVICE DEPARTMENT shall have charge of the construction, maintenance and operation of all public utilities owned or operated by the City.

SECTION 2. The Council shall, by ordinance, provide for all necessary subordinate officers, employes, clerks and laborers for this department and, until other provision is made therefor, the existing ordinances providing for the said subordinate officers, clerks, employes and laborers, shall remain in force.

ARTICLE XXIII.
MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

SECTION 1. Notwithstanding anything in this charter contained, the City Manager may from time to time, in order to facilitate the prompt, economical and efficient dispatch of City business, assign assistants, deputies, clerks or employes from any office or department of the City government to perform work or service in connection with any other office or department of the City government, or may assign any assistant, deputy, clerk or employe of the City to work in more than one of said offices or departments.

SECTION 2. All general laws of the State applicable to municipal corporations, now or hereafter enacted, and which are not in conflict with the provisions of this charter or with ordinances or resolutions adopted in pursuance of this charter, shall be applicable to the City.

SECTION 3. Whenever in this charter the word "City" occurs, it means the City of Glendale, and every department, board or officer, whenever either is mentioned, means a department, board or officer, as the case may be, of the City of Glendale.

SECTION 4. The compensation of elective officers shall not be increased during the terms of their respective offices.

SECTION 5. If any officer of the City shall die or remove from the City, or absent himself therefrom for more than thirty days consecutively, without the permission of the Council, or if he shall fail to qualify by taking the oath of office and filing his official bond, whenever such bond is required, within fifteen days from the time his certificate of election or appointment is mailed or delivered to him, or if he shall resign or be removed from office, or if his election shall be finally declared void by any competent tribunal, or if he shall be convicted of a felony, or if he shall be adjudged insane, or if he shall cease to discharge the duties of his office (other than that of member of the Council) for two consecutive months, unless prevented by sickness, his office shall become vacant.

SECTION 6. The improvement, widening and opening of streets, the planting of trees, and all public improvements not specified in this charter may be done, and assessments therefor may be levied in conformity with and under the authority conferred by general laws; provided, however, that the Council may by ordinance adopt a procedure for the improvement of streets, alleys or other public places, or for the removal of dirt, rubbish, weeds and other rank growths and materials which may injure or endanger neighboring property or the health or the welfare of inhabitants of the vicinity, from buildings, lots and grounds and the sidewalks opposite thereto, and for making and enforcing assessments against property benefited or affected thereby or from which such removal is made, for the cost of such improvements or removal, and may make such assessments a lien on such property superior to all other claims or liens thereon, except State, County and Municipal taxes, but no such ordinance shall prevent the Council from proceeding under general laws for said purposes.

SECTION 7. All officers and boards shall deliver to their successors, all papers, books, documents, records, archives and other properties pertaining to their respective offices or departments, in their possession or under their control.

SECTION 8. No member of the Council, or of any Board, and no officer or employe of the City shall be or become directly or indirectly interested in any contract, work or business, or in the sale of any article, the expense, price or consideration of which is payable from the City Treasury, nor shall either or any of them receive any gratuity or advantage from any contractor or person furnishing labor or material for the same; and any contract with the City, in which any such officer or employe is or becomes interested, shall be declared void by the Council.

SECTION 9. All officers, clerks, and assistants of the City and departments thereof, except such as may be employed for special purposes, must be citizens of the United States during their period of employment.

SECTION 10. No officer or employe of the City shall give or promise to give to any person, any portion of his compensation, or any money or thing of value in consideration of having been, or of being nominated, appointed, voted for or elected to any office or employment.

SECTION 11. No officer or employe shall accept any donation or gratuity in money, or other thing of value, either directly or indirectly, from any subordinate or employe, or from any one under his charge, or from any candidate or applicant for any position as employe or subordinate in any department of the City.

SECTION 12. No officer or employe of the City shall aid or assist a bidder in securing a contract to furnish labor, or material or supplies at a higher price or rate than that proposed by any other responsible bidder, or shall favor one bidder over another, giving or withholding information, or shall willfully mislead any bidder in regard to the character of the material or supplies called for, or shall knowingly accept materials or supplies of a quality inferior to that called for by the contract, or shall knowingly certify to a greater amount of labor performed than has actually been performed, or to the receipt of a greater amount of material or supplies than has actually been received.

SECTION 13. Every officer who shall willfully approve, allow or pay any demand on the Treasury not authorized by law, shall be liable to the City individually and on his official bond for the amount of the demand so approved, allowed or paid, and shall forfeit such office and be forever disbarred and disqualified from holding any position in the service of the City.

SECTION 14. All moneys received from taxes, licenses, fees, fines, penalties and forfeitures, and all moneys which may be collected or received by any officer of the city in his official capacity, or by any department of the City, for the performance of any official duty, and all moneys accruing to the City from any source, and all moneys directed by law, or by this charter, to be paid or deposited in the Treasury, shall be paid into the Treasury daily. The Treasurer shall receipt for each such deposit in triplicate, giving the original and duplicate to the depositor, who must file the duplicate with the City Controller.

SECTION 15. All books and records of every office and department shall be open to the inspection of any citizens during business hours, subject to the proper rules and regulations for the efficient conduct of the business of such department or office; but the records of the Police Department shall not be subject to such inspection except by permission of the proper police authorities.

SECTION 16. Copies or extracts, duly certified, from said books and records open for inspection, shall be given by the officer having the same in custody to any person demanding the same and paying or tendering ten cents per folio of one hundred words for such copies or extracts, and the additional sum of twenty-five (25) cents for certifying.

SECTION 17. Unless otherwise provided for by law, all city officers shall keep their offices open for the transaction of business continuously from 8 o'clock a. m. to 5 o'clock p. m. each day except Sundays and holidays.

SECTION 18. All ordinances and resolutions in force at the time this charter takes effect, and not inconsistent therewith, shall continue in full force until amended or repealed.

SECTION 19. All officers, assistants, and employes in office, when this charter takes effect, shall continue to hold and exercise their respective offices or employment, under the terms of this charter, until the election or appointment and qualification of their successors.

SECTION 20. The present Board of Trustees shall provide for the holding of the first election of officers under this charter and shall canvass the votes and declare the result thereof.

SECTION 21. All vested rights of the City shall continue and shall not in any manner be affected by its adoption of this charter, nor shall any right, liability, pending suit or prosecution, either in behalf of or against the City, be affected by the adoption of this charter, unless otherwise herein expressly provided. All contracts entered into by the City or for its benefit prior to the taking effect of this charter shall continue in full force and effect. All public work begun prior to the taking effect of this charter shall be continued and perfected hereunder. Public improvements for which legislative steps shall have been taken under laws in force at the time this charter takes effect, may be carried to completion in accordance with the provisions of such laws.

SECTION 22. On the first day of each month every officer authorized by law to charge any fee, commission, percentage, allowance or compensation, must make a written report to the City Controller of all moneys received by him during the preceding month.

SECTION 23. If any section or part of a section of this charter proves to be invalid, it shall not be held to invalidate or impair the validity of any other section or part of a section, unless it clearly appears that such other section, or part of a section, is dependent for its operation upon the section or part of a section so held invalid.

SECTION 24. When making purchases for all departments of the City, local merchants shall be given the preference, quality and prices being equal.

SECTION 25. Neither the City Manager, nor any person in the employ of the City shall take any active part in securing, or shall contribute money toward the nomination or election of any candidate for a municipal office.

SECTION 26. All the powers of the City except as otherwise provided by this charter, are hereby vested in the Council.

SECTION 27. The violation of any provision of this charter shall be deemed a misdemeanor. The Council may make the violation of any ordinance a misdemeanor and fix the punishment therefor, not exceeding a fine of Five Hundred ($500.00) Dollars or imprisonment not exceeding six months, or both. Any person sentenced to imprisonment for a violation of this Charter or of any ordinance, may be imprisoned in the City Jail or in the County Jail of the County in which the City of Glendale is situated, in which latter case the expense of such imprisonment shall be a charge in favor of such County against the City of Glendale. Persons so imprisoned may also be required by the Council to labor on the streets or other public works of the City.

SECTION 28. For the purpose of electing all elective officers, and all purposes connected therewith, this Charter shall take effect from the time of its approval by the Legislature. For all other purposes, it shall take effect on July 5th, 1921.

WHEREAS, The City of Glendale is a City containing a population of more than thirty-five hundred inhabitants, as ascertained by the last preceding census taken under authority of the Congress of the United States; and,

BOND ELECTION

EAGLE ROCK CITY PROPOSES TO SECURE $40,000 FOR ITS WATER SYSTEM

In answer to a petition from the municipal water board, the city trustees of Eagle Rock City have passed a resolution of intention to issue bonds in the sum of $40,000 for enlarging mains, new extensions, new reservoirs, wells and machinery, and arrangements will be made for a special election.

It is proposed to first hold a mass meeting to explain the situation to the people of Eagle Rock City. It is declared that new residents and people settling on streets now provided with mains have forced the water board to request the bond issue in order that proper extensions and improvements may be made, the board explaining that the cost would be too great for it to do the work unaided.

COST STAYS UP

ASSOCIATION OF CANDY MEN DECLARES THAT IT CANNOT MAKE LOWER PRICES

According to word coming from Del Monte, Calif., the high cost of chocolate imperials will continue high.

The same applies to taffy, all-day suckers and gum drops. The Western Confectioners' association, in session at Del Monte, has so decided.

Association members declared prices of sweets already have been reduced considerably, but they cannot well go lower.

"Candy prices have been greatly lowered already," according to Leon Sweet of Salt Lake City, president of the association. "Sugar, one of the largest elements in manufacture, has dropped but other materials used have not as yet gone down."

The association went on record as favoring a repeal of the excise tax on candy, declaring candy is a food, not a luxury.

TARIFF ON EGGS?

HEAD OF COUNTY FARM BOARD ADVOCATES IMPORTED 'HEN FRUIT' BE TAXED

If the poultrymen of California have their way, a tariff of not less than 10 cents a dozen will be levied on imported eggs.

Robert H. Neely of El Monte, president of the Los Angeles County Farm Bureau, has telegraphed, he states, to the American Farm Bureau, with headquarters at Washington, urging that the tariff be imposed.

President Neely states he favors the organization of a poulthymen's department in the bureau of the county, to which would be assigned a poultry specialist from the agricultural extension service of the University of California.

SCORES BIG EAR MUFFS

WORCESTER, Mass.—"Don't aggravate fashion as girls do, who wear such huge buns of hair over their ears that they resemble African savages," was the advice given to members of the Worcester Woman's club, an exclusive and fashionable society, by James Parton Hanley, director of art in the New York high schools.

His lecture topic was "Taste and Its Training." He defined taste as a matter of making wise choice, not a matter of cost. He hailed women as the real arbiters of fashion, style and taste.

AGED WOMAN BECOMES CITIZEN

NEW YORK—Miss Mathilda Malkin, eighty-two years old, residing at the Presbyterian home, 49 East Seventy-third street, was naturalized as a citizen of the United States before Supreme Court Justice Lydon. She was born in England and came to the United States in 1854.

"As long as women could not vote I didn't consider it necessary to become a citizen," she explained, "but now I consider it a Christian duty to register and cast my ballot. That's why I was naturalized."

POLICE MAY STUDY JIU JITSU

BOSTON—The study of jiu jitsu may shortly be included in the curriculum of the police department. Superintendent Crowley informed a group of thirty recruits. Complimenting the men, 95 per cent of whom saw service during the war, on the excellent manner in which they performed an exhibition drill, the superintendent said that Commissioner Curtis was seriously contemplating engaging a jiu jitsu expert.

A Homelike House

A house does not need to be large to be homelike. This bungalow is small, but it has a decidedly "homey" air. The casement windows, the rose trellis, the window boxes, the side approaches, are all placed just right.

The appearance of a house has a lot to do with its homelikeness, as you will see by looking over our plan book.

BOOKS RELEASED

NUMBER OF NEW VOLUMES AT GLENDALE LIBRARY GIVEN OUT THIS WEEK

Books to suit every taste are included in the selection of new books offered to the public at the Glendale library this week. Following is a list of books released:

"Tahiti Days," by Hector MacQuarrie. A narrative of restful days and happy wanderings among "The Isle of Tranquil Delight." Here is a record of leisurely, colorful days in Tahiti. Those to whom Stevenson, Rupert Brooke, Maugham, Safroni-Middleton and others have made Tahiti a magic word will find here a fresh and modern account of this tropical paradise where man can quite forget the work-a-day world of the temperate zone.

"The Life of John Marshall," in four volumes, by Albert J. Beveridge.

Novel by Zane Grey

"The Mysterious Rider," by Zane Grey. A novel written with that literary charm and beauty of which Zane Grey is master; swift-moving, full of the glamour of romance and adventure, and with the breath of western plains and mountains in its pages.

"The Cheery Way," a bit of verse for every day, by John Kendrick Bangs. And, not only for every day, but for every mood and feeling. A real creed of cheerfulness for dark days and bright.

"The Big-Town Round-Up," by William MacLeod Raine. Here is the reversal of the usual situation—instead of the easterner going west, Arizona comes to New York, the "big town." It is the story of how Clay Lindsay of Arizona beats the big-town gunmen at their own game.

Mary Pickford Edition

Mary Pickford edition of "Pollyanna," the "glad book," with thirty-two illustrations from the motion picture play.

"Life and Letters of Hamilton W. Mabie," by Edwin W. Morse.

"The Tidal Wave," by Ethel M. Dell. The story concerns an artist whose fascinating personality overcomes the shyness, and in a measure the modesty, of his pretty fishing village model, and the resultant jealousy of her sturdy fisherman lover. A story of power and of deeper sentiment.

"Scientific Methods in Philosophy," by Bertrand Russell, M. A., F. R. S.

Here's Entertaining Absurdity

"In the Sweet Dry and Dry," by Christopher Morley and Bart Haley. This entertaining absurdity deals with the efforts of a high-minded moderate drinker to keep the nation at least slightly moistened. Perhaps beneath the sparkling comedy of this story there lies a vein of serious satire. The authors themselves do not pretend to know. They say they wrote it because it gave them amusement to do so, during the "bitter" month of June, 1919.

"The Drama of the Face," and other studes is applied psychology, by Elwin Lincoln House, D. D. "There is a story in every face. At 15 it is the one God has given. At 50 it is the one a man has made for himself. A young man's face is a propecy; an old man's is a history. A young man's face is a story—a dream of the future; an old man's is a fact about himself.

"The Book of Humorous Verse," compiled by Carolyn Wells. A volume in which you can be almost certain to find any one of your favorite humorous poems.

"The Bride of Corinth," by Anatole France.

In Juvenile Department

Following is a list of books to be released this week in the juvenile department, some of which are duplicated in the adult department.

"The Book of Stars," by A. Frederick Collins. This book on astronomy has been written with the sole idea of showing the boy or girl how to become familiar with the sun, moon and stars without any previous knowledge of the heavenly bodies.

"A Man for the Ages," by Irving Bacheller. A Man for the Ages is a wonderfully beautiful and moving story in which we are thus given a full view of the heart and soul of the great Emancipator. Lincoln is alive with his own great and beneficial humanity in this tale—ambition, wisdom, humor, shrewdness, charity.

"The Valley of the Giants," by Peter B. Kyne. A romance of the redwoods. A novel of the California forests. The exhilarating breath of the back woods is present on every page. The reader finished with a sense of having lived with big men and women in a big country.

"The Mysterious Rider," by Zane Grey.

"The Painted Desert," by Kirk Monroe. A story of northern Arizona.

"Philip Winwood," by Robert Neilson Stephens. A sketch of the domestic history of an American captain in the war of Independence; embracing events that occurred between and during the years 1763 and 1786 in New York and London.

"The Scottish Chiefs," by Jane Porter. A romance, in two volumes.

STUDIES DRY ROT

OFFICIAL IN BUREAU FOR PLANT INDUSTRY MAKES REPORT ON FINDINGS

Though incense cedar is not a rare wood, pencil manufacturers and cabinetmakers have difficulty in keeping a sufficient quantity of this material in stock. It is estimated that there is a supply measuring 11,000,000,000 feet in this country, of which 10,000,000,000 are located within the boundaries of California.

The trouble is that the heartwood of incense cedar is commonly honeycombed by a dry rot which makes a large part of it valueless for timber. On account of this experienced lumbermen consider incense cedar an inferior tree, and frequently reduce estimates by 30 per cent to 50 per cent. It costs as much to cut and bring to market a diseased tree as a sound one, and lumbermen hesitate to work with a wood which gives such a large average loss.

Dr. John S. Boyce of the bureau of plant industry, United States department of agriculture, has finished a very complete study of this dry rot of incense cedar.

Changes Made in Cutting

The results, as published in Department Bulletin 871, "The Dry Rot of Incense Cedar," shows that a change of methods of marketing, scaling and bucking—that is, designating what trees are to be cut, estimating the amount of timber is in the trees, and sawing the timber into log lengths—will ultimately materially after the status of this tree, and that sound trees and logs can be distinguished from decayed.

The dry-rot infection enters the trees through wounds caused by fire or through the scars resulting from the natural pruning of the lower limbs. Successful control of forest fires will go far toward eliminating this rot in the future forest, but the present stand of incense cedar is already infected.

It is pointed out, however, that for incense cedar trees growing under the best conditions the rot is not serious in a tree which is under 210 years of age. In trees growing under less favorable conditions the critical age is 165 years.

BABYLON'S HANGING GARDENS

The hanging gardens of Babylon were not in any sense suspended, as one would ordinarily interpret the word hanging. They were simply high up, or on terraces. This form of gardening has been popular in countries all over the world since Babylon was at its zenith of greatness. There are many evidences in various parts of the globe of extensive terrace gardening practiced by peoples long since dead, but there is very little done at the present day.

MISTAKEN FOR ELK, IS KILLED

RIVERTON, Wyo.—R. Cohen has been exonerated by a coroner's jury here for the killing of his brother-in-law, Sam R. O'Neil, whom he mistook for an elk while the two were hunting near Dubois.

O'Neil and Cohen were beating a thicket some distance apart when Cohen thought he heard an elk crashing through the underbrush. He fired, the bullet entering O'Neil's head and killing him instantly.

REALTY DEALERS

ABOUT EVERY REAL ESTATE OPERATOR IN CITY AIDS FUND FOR FLOAT

Practically every real estate man or woman, firm or corporation, has made a subscription to the fund being raised to clear away the deficit on the city's float which won first prize in the Tournament of Roses parade in Pasadena on New Year's day.

When it was made known that the float committee, in order to carry out its original plans and attempt to construct a prize-winning display, had been forced to exceed the amount of money first subscribed by the people of Glendale, Mrs. Mabel L. Tight, a member of the committee, offered to visit the real estate concerns of the city and give them an opportunity to help in clearing away the deficit.

Spends Three Days in Work

Mrs. Tight spent three days in making the canvass, sometmes being compelled to return three tmes to an office before finding the proper party in. But she stuck to her task with the result that about every realty concern in the city contributed, making a total of $288 collected from the realty dealers by Mrs. Tight. This is considered by the float committee a fine showing and the work of Mrs. Tight and the contributions of the realty dealers are appreciated.

FAIRY PICTURES?

SIR ARTHUR CONAN DOYLE IS POSITIVE PHOTOGRAPHS MAY BE SECURED

Fairies actually exist and have been photographed. This assertion is made by Sir Arthur Conan Doyle in a remarkable article in the "Strand Magazine."

The fairy photographs are reproduced. They were taken in Yorkshire three years ago by two girls, Iris Carpenter, 16, and her cousin Alice, 10. In one of them Alice stands behind a hedgeside bank, and at her feet, in among the flowers and bracken, are four flitting fairy figures of the traditional story-book type—long-haired, gossamer-robed, and complete with transparent wings, just the way fairy specialists have always depicted them.

The other photograph shows a little imp or gnome dancing round the feet of Iris. He also is true to type. His little face is whimsically puckered and he, too, boasts a pair of wings of the moth type.

Not Faked, Is Belief

Sir Arthur declares that several expert photographers have been shown the original negatives of the fairy photographs, and have satisfied themselves that they are in no wise "faked."

"The pictures either stand or fall together," says Sir Arthur, in the course of his article. "Both are false or both are true. All the circumstances point to the latter alternative."

The little girls say they have seen and known the fairies all their lives and they regard the whole thing as a matter of course.

AMERICAN EAGLE IN DANGER

The white-headed eagle, national emblem and symbol of power, is threatened with extinction. Far from being the "bird of freedom," he is the victim of persecution—and in the land of his exaltation! For Alaska fixed a bounty of 50 cents upon his head, and in two years 5600 eagles were brought low! The charge against him is eating fish and game, principally dead fish, and such prey as he obtains by right of might. Certain commercial interests are said to be the cause for the enactment of the infamous law. Have we no more respect for the American Eagle, whose image we place atop the Star Spangled Banner, than to suffer him to be exterminated for the sake of human greed?

COWS ESTABLISH RECORD

CLIFTON, S. C.—Two South Carolina counties are laying claim to having champion dividend-producing cows.

Greenville county recently announced a cow which had borne four calves within twelve months, but Spartanburg county is now claiming first honors because its cow bore two sets of twin calves during 1920. She is owned by L. E. Wright, a rural mail carrier of this place.

Word from Ft. Atchison, Wis., a dairy center, says this is the first instance of a cow having borne two sets of twins in one year, as far as is known there.

Some folks like so much to advertise themselves that they buy a drum when a horn becomes too monotonous.

Many persons who never operated anything more intricate than a wheelbarrow are able to tell how the railroads should be run.

GIRL ROAMS FOR SEVEN YEARS

CHICAGO—Hundreds of persons who crowded around pretty, fantastically dressed Rosa Miguel, on her way to her home in Norfolk, Va., in the Baltimore & Ohio station, saw no hint of the tragedy in her smile—no hint of seven years' separation from her parents and seven years of roaming over two continents as a prisoner of a Gypsy band.

Beside Rosa was Eli Miguel, her father, who had spent seven years and a small fortune in locating his daughter, stolen from her Virginia home by a roving band of Gypsies.

Little Rosa's life of roaming terminated recently near Phoenix, Ariz., where her band was discovered by a private detective agency and where she was rescued after a brief fight.

Antonio Ynez, son of the Gypsy band's "king," whom she was forced to marry a year ago, is held, together with a number of the band, pending further investigation.

"When I get back home I'm going to have this—pointing to a small brilliant diamond in a front tooth—removed. Then I'll try to forget."

The diamond, she explained, was a token of queenship over the Gypsies.

A lot of persons never seem happy unless they are getting things for themselves or keeping others from getting them.

The persons who try to get the most out of their church membership usually put the least into it.

PLANE VS. BATTLESHIP

So much has been heard of what a bombing plane might do to a battleship it is interesting to learn just what resulted when the experiment was tried. For two days the obsolete battleship Indiana was bombed by a squadron of five of the largest navy planes without sending her to the bottom. She was under wireless control, no one, of course, being on board, moving ten miles an hour, when attacked by the aerial fleet in battle formation. They assailed her from all points of the compass. Sometimes the bombs hit her sides and sometimes they fell into the sea. Those that landed on her decks did a certain amount of damage, as the wreckage, twisted steel and fittings showed, but they utterly failed to send her to the bottom.

Yet it is described as about as severe a bombardment as any battleship is likely to receive from the air in actual warfare. In the light of this actual demonstration it is evident that the effect of aerial attacks on battleships has been greatly exaggerated. With such protection as is no doubt being designed against just such attacks the water craft may not be so speedily relegated to the scrap heap as the aerial enthusiasts have imagined. The chief value of air fleets in naval warfare would seem to be to serve as "eyes for the fleet," just as in land operation they have been most useful in scouting.

Making Homes Attractive

Glendale has won fame because she is a City of Homes, but take away the trees, shrubs and flowers, the many pretty gardens and the beautifully laid-out grounds and Glendale would be a City of Houses instead of a City of Homes. No one would care to live here then.

Is your home as attractive as it might be made? Wouldn't a tree or two here, a hedge over there and some shrubbery in that corner make a vast improvement?

Help to make Glendale more attractive by beautifying your home grounds, no matter how small. Look over the situation and get your order for nursery stock in early.
